

DEPARTMENT OF PLANNING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Home Occupation Registration:

Some examples of home occupations that require a registration application include but are not limited to the following: If you are advertising to the public for services run out of your house; if you are planning of having clients or customers come to your house for services; or if you are conducting a business that is medically related out of your home.

Please complete a home occupation registration application for submittal and review for approval with the Zoning Division. If applicable, please contact your insurance company and homeowner's association before beginning the application process.

For further information, please review the home occupation ordinance and if there are any questions, contact the Zoning Division at: 248-871-2520.

Thank you.
