Celebrate Fall in Heritage Park at Annual Hay Day on Oct. 7

Free admission for fun family activities to celebrate fall in Farmington Hills

WHAT: Head to Heritage Park in Farmington Hills for the annual Hay Day/Fly & Fry, a fun-filled night of fall activities for the whole family, including:

- Walking the picturesque trails at Heritage Park,
- Bouncing through the inflatable obstacle course, and
- Huddling around the largest campfire in Farmington Hills to roast marshmallows and hot dogs.

The Farmington Hills Fire Department will host marshmallow drops from the fire truck, where kids can collect marshmallows to redeem for prizes.

- 6 p.m. for ages 5 and under
- 6:20 p.m. for ages 6-8
- 6:40 p.m. for ages 9 and up

Admission to the event is free. Hayrides and pumpkins for painting will be available for purchase, in addition to s'mores kits, hot dogs, chips and drinks.

WHO: The City of Farmington Hills Special Services Department invites community members of all ages and abilities to celebrate fall at Heritage Park with fun activities for the whole family. Hay Day is supported by Oakland County Parks, Busch's Fresh Food Market, and the Farmington Hills Police and Fire Departments.

WHEN: Tuesday, Oct. 7 from 5-8 p.m.

Note for reporters: Although the Cities of Farmington Hills and Farmington share similar names and are both communities in Oakland County, they are two distinct and separate cities. Farmington Hills is the larger of the two, both in population and size. Farmington is a historic city with its own unique governance and community. Please be sure to differentiate between the two cities in your reporting to avoid confusion.
