TRAINING VIDEO SIMULATOR (MILO) DEMONSTRATION AT THE POLICE DEPARTMENT

Police Chief Nebus explained that City Council authorized the purchase of the training video simulator last year using forfeiture funds. He mentioned that the communities of Farmington and Franklin wish to share in the use of the simulator and will reimburse the city a portion of the cost, which will be put back into the forfeiture fund.

City Council and staff went over to the Police Department to view and test the training simulator. Officer Lauria demonstrated how the simulator worked and how it assisted officers with training in various scenarios that they could encounter in real life.

Police Chief Nebus thanked City Council for allowing the Police Department to purchase the simulator. He believes it will be very beneficial to the Officers and Departments.

Pamela B. Smith, City Clerk
